SPECIAL CHURCH & GROUP STUDY PREVIEW

GOD'S REDEEMING GRACE FOR PAUL THE APOSTLE

Book + Companion Six-Week Workbook

A ready-to-use journey through Paul's transformation, ministry, perseverance, and faith.

A Personal Note from Me

Dear Pastor, Ministry Leader, or Bible Study Leader,

I didn't write God's Redeeming Grace for Paul the Apostle simply to tell Paul's story. I wrote it because Paul's life demonstrates one of the greatest truths of the Gospel: God does not define us by where we started.

Saul had a past. He made mistakes. He hurt people. Yet when he encountered Jesus, grace didn't merely forgive him - grace transformed him and gave his life a new purpose.

My prayer is that this book and companion study will help your group learn more about Paul, dig deeper into Scripture, and most importantly recognize the redeeming grace of God at work in their own lives.

I want readers to see that grace is not merely forgiveness - it is also God's power at work in a surrendered life.

Blessings,
Tammy Torres

PART ONE - BOOK PREVIEW

WHO WAS SAUL?

Before Paul became one of Christianity's most influential apostles, he was Saul of Tarsus.

Why I begin with Saul's background

I want readers to understand the man before they study the apostle. I walk through Saul's Jewish upbringing, Pharisee training, Roman citizenship, persecution of Christians, and the death of Stephen so we can see just how dramatic God's work in his life truly was.

- Saul's education and devotion to Jewish law
- His Roman citizenship and the role it later played
- His zeal against the early Church
- The danger of self-righteousness and relying on our own performance

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN SOMEONE WHO THINKS HE IS SERVING GOD DISCOVERS HE HAS BEEN FIGHTING AGAINST HIM?

BOOK PREVIEW

THE ROAD TO DAMASCUS

This is where I invite readers to move from Paul's story into their own relationship with Jesus.

On the road to Damascus, Saul encountered the risen Christ. The man traveling to arrest believers suddenly found himself confronted by the One he had been opposing.

Questions I want readers to wrestle with

- If Jesus spoke to you, would you recognize His voice?
- What kind of relationship do you have with Jesus?
- Has God ever had to interrupt your plans to redirect your life?
- What does surrender look like when God changes your direction?

The point is not only to know what happened to Paul. I want readers to recognize what an encounter with Jesus can change in us.

BOOK PREVIEW

ANANIAS: DOING IT AFRAID

Ananias reminds me that obedience does not require the absence of fear.

When God told Ananias to go to Saul, he knew Saul's reputation and had every reason to be afraid. He voiced that fear to the Lord - and then he obeyed.

This is one of the places where the study becomes deeply practical for me. How many times do we argue with God because we are scared, uncertain, or cannot see the outcome? Ananias could not see everything God was about to do through Paul. He simply had to take the next obedient step.

Sometimes we have to do what God asks us to do afraid - trusting that He sees what we cannot.

That message reaches far beyond Paul's story. It challenges every believer to consider what God may be asking them to do right now.

THE COMPLETE BOOK

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES

PERSECUTOR > CONVERT > STUDENT > MISSIONARY > CHURCH BUILDER > PRISONER > TEACHER > FAITHFUL FINISH

In the complete book, I take readers through Paul's missionary journeys, the Jerusalem Council, his letters, imprisonment, shipwreck, suffering, final ministry, and legacy. Throughout the journey, I connect the history and Scripture to the same question: what can Paul's life teach us about God's grace and our own walk with Christ?

Paul's life shows me that a surrendered life can be redeemed, redirected, and used for God's purpose.

ACTUAL WORKBOOK PREVIEW

PART TWO - WORKBOOK PREVIEW

A SIX-WEEK CHURCH & SMALL GROUP STUDY

READ • STUDY • DISCUSS • REFLECT • APPLY

I created the companion workbook so the book could become more than something a group reads together. I wanted participants to interact with Scripture, ask meaningful questions, reflect personally, pray, take notes, and apply what they are learning.

My goal is not only for participants to understand Paul's life, but to recognize how God is working in their own lives.

The six-week journey

WEEK 1 | Saul: The Beginning of God's Plan
WEEK 2 | A Divine Encounter
WEEK 3 | Hidden Years & The First Missionary Journey
WEEK 4 | Taking the Gospel to the Nations
WEEK 5 | Faithfulness Through Suffering
WEEK 6 | Finishing the Race

SAMPLE STUDY

WEEK 2 - A DIVINE ENCOUNTER

Reading: Chapters 3-5

This Week's Focus

- The Road to Damascus
- Saul's conversion
- Ananias' obedience
- Saul's first days as a believer
- Arabia and spiritual preparation

Dig Deeper

- Why was Saul's conversion so significant?
- What can we learn from Ananias' obedience?
- Why do you think God sent Saul into Arabia before beginning his ministry?
- How does God prepare people before using them?

Personal Reflection

- Has God ever redirected your life?
- What areas require greater trust in Him?
- How has God shown His grace to you?

This is how I move the study from biblical understanding into personal discipleship.

GO DEEPER

MORE THAN SIX WEEKLY LESSONS

I also included additional study and discussion material so leaders can extend the conversation, adapt the study to their group, or go deeper when a particular topic opens meaningful discussion.

Observation

What stands out in the text? What do we learn about Paul and about God?

Understanding

Why did these events matter, and how did Paul respond?

Personal Application

What is God asking us to apply in our own lives?

Digging Deeper

How does the passage connect to grace, salvation, discipleship, and God's larger plan?

Group Discussion

What questions, insights, or challenges should we explore together?

Reflection & Prayer

What truth will we remember, and what action will we take?

OBSERVE • UNDERSTAND • APPLY • DISCUSS • PRAY

FROM TRANSFORMATION TO LEGACY

The final week brings the group to Paul's later ministry, imprisonment, final encouragements, and legacy. I want participants to finish by looking not only at the race Paul ran, but at the race God has placed before them.

- What legacy do I hope to leave?
- How has this study changed me?
- Where is God calling me to greater faith or obedience?
- What is God calling me to do next?

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." - 2 Timothy 4:7
